

Stinger Driver

A local feed manufacturing company is looking for a qualified stinger driver responsible for transporting deliveries in accordance with company guidelines and DOT regulations.

Duties and Responsibilities include preparing a daily delivery schedule, coordinating efficient deliveries by applying knowledge of customer schedules, peak delivery times and alternate routes. Successful candidate will apply knowledge and abilities to safely load and unload deliveries according to size of load and content description; process shipment documents neatly and efficiently for each shipment, and manage discrepancy documentation; obtain and maintain proper delivery authorization and pickup documentation, and submits in a timely manner; provide good customer service and maintains a professional manner and appearance to enhance the company's image. Performs a daily DOT pre-trip inspection according to checklist, and keeps an accurate copy in the vehicle at all times; maintain a daily, legible DOT log book; balances and handles an expense account for each trip by recording all expenses and maintaining all receipts; provide basic maintenance for vehicle; maintain company gas credit cards, valid/current proof of insurance and registration in vehicle; reports all accidents/damage/malfunctions to management. Prior delivery driving experience preferred. Valid Driver's License and must be able to meet insurance underwriting requirements. To apply, fax resume to (559) 651-0407 or mail to PO Box 1029 Goshen, CA 93227.

Milk Driver

Western Milk Transport, in Goshen, CA, is looking for an experienced milk driver. Reqs: 1 year milk truck driving experience, valid Class A license and a clean driving record. Candidates should also be personable, dependable, attentive to detail and punctual.